PLAIN, TWO-TONED TEXTURE FOR CREATIVE STYLES - AKITO by Warwick

High in tactility and suitable for heavy commercial spaces, AKITO is a two-toned, contemporary upholstery plain that is versatile and ideal for bringing a playful and rustic mood to an interior. FR tested with Oeko-Tex certification, AKITO's chunky aesthetic and invigorating colour palette offers versatility and dimension which effortlessly creates relaxed residential, and urban style commercial spaces.

- DESIGN: Chunky in nature, this two-toned, woven yarn dyed fabric features a basket weave that will suit a myriad of upholstery pieces. AKITO is not only versatile and colourful, it is durable and creates an extra layer of dimension, depth and visual interest to an upholstery piece.
- APPLICATION: With Oeko-Tex certification and FR rating, AKITO sits comfortably in residential and heavy commercial interiors — its durability and added benefit of Halo easy-clean makes this fabric perfect for upholstery sofas or cushions of any scale. AKITO is ideal for heavy commercial use when incorporating a pop of colour, texture and visual appeal to a commercial space.
- COLOURWAYS: AKITO offers a variety of 14 colourways with a two-toned finish. A strong collection of neutrals are found in Natural, Sand, Fossil and Walnut which offer a earthy tone option, while Onyx, Steel and Silver provide cooler shades of staple greys in both light and dark tones. Featuring playful colours such as Blush, Terracotta, Marigold, and Sky, these invigorating hues offer impactful choices in the range, bringing warm and cool tones into the mix.
- RATING: Heavy commercial and AS1530.3 tested, with Oeko-Tex certification and Halo easy-clean characteristics, AKITO is ideal for creating themes of cocoon-like spaces, as well as engaging interiors. Versatile in nature, its colour selection and chunky texture makes this collection suitable and ideal for creating urban, calm and playful moods.
