TRANSITIONAL TONES FOR A TIMELESS STRIPE - CALVERTON by Warwick

Overview: The CALVERTON collection has had a colourway expansion. This ticking stripe, designed in Warwick's Melbourne studio combines an enduring pattern with a dual-purpose base cloth and heavy commercial classification.

- Design: This digitally printed fabric brings direction and contrast to any residential and commercial environment. With a gently textured handle and matte finish, this timeless ticking stripe offers a versatile selection of colours to suit most applications.
- Application: CALVERTON's dual-purpose, poly-cotton blend is machine washable with a heavy commercial rating. This strength and stability make it a perfect choice for roman blinds, drapery, accessories and upholstery. CALVERTON offers a classic coordinate for fabrics including the popular Malabar collection.
- Colourways: A total of 14 colours allow CALVERTON to adapt and scheme into most interior applications. Classic colonial colours can be found in Burgundy, Evergreen and Basalt. Softer hues include Seaglass, Orchid and Natural. Playing to timeless coastal tones see colours of Marine, Sky and Dune.
- Rating: CALVERTON delivers the perfect coordinate to incorporate timeless and understated contrast into any interior application. From residential to heavy commercial, this machine washable quality is versatile and understandable, adding direction and visual interest to any project.
