

WARWICK

A TONAL INFUSION WITH NATURAL CHARACTER - LEXUS by Warwick

Overview: LEXUS combines a gentle texture and natural aesthetic to create a transitional and timeless dual-purpose classic, suited to a myriad of moods. General commercial in strength with an adaptable nature ideal for drapery - LEXUS is an all-embracing fabric that brings character and charm to an array of commercial and residential spaces.

- Application: This piece-dyed plain weave flaunts a tonal matte aesthetic and soft handle making it ideal for small or large upholstery, drapery, cushions and roman blinds. Raw and refined, the slubby nature of the varying yarn gives LEXUS its relaxed sophistication that unite interiors of all kinds.
- Colourways: LEXUS brings its soft texture, tone and transitional nature in 31 mood melding colours. Suited to all applications in upholstery and drapery - soothing and calm natural hues include Ecru, Natural and Feather. Kale, Gingerbread and Rust present rich and earthy trending tones to the mix. Gentle in colour Musk, Duckegg and Rosewater add lighter pastels to this palette.
- Rating: Bringing strength and sophistication in a collection of naturally textured plains - LEXUS features a general commercial rating and dual-purpose capability in an extensive colour line. These attributes make it the perfect base to blend and layer upon with its soft handle, textured and toned aesthetic, and matte finish which transitions into almost any scheme.
