CLEO

A SUMPTUOUS AND LUXURIOUS VELVET - CLEO by Warwick

Perfectly plush and inherently comforting, CLEO offers a truly comprehensive colour palette of rich and luxurious hues in a smooth low pile velvet construction. Boasting a subtle lustre that illuminates when it catches the light, CLEO's sumptuous aesthetic is refined yet opulent, making it the ideal dual-purpose plain for modern interiors seeking warmth, comfort and style.

- APPLICATION: A dual-purpose velvet that is protected by the HALO properties of high performance and easy cleanability, CLEO is perfect for a myriad of applications from textured drapes to plush sofas and soft matching accents. Offering the added benefit of fire rating, this versatile plain features a true velvet construction with a harmonious balance of colour and texture.

- COLOURWAYS: Trend hues such as Forest and Copper are deep and rich with a sophisticated aesthetic that is perfect for modern spaces, while bright colours like Cobalt and Rouge offer personality, character and an electric pop of colour. Key neutrals such as Flint and Truffle will round out the colour palette with versatile hues that are refined, relaxed and easily adapted to existing colour schemes.

- RATING: A true velvet with the ability to be styled in both residential and commercial settings, CLEO is a versatile plain that offers glamour and durability. Fire rated, Oeko-Tex certified and protected by the HALO characteristics, CLEO's dual-purpose application and comprehensive colour palette make it the perfect fabric for luxurious and textured interiors.
