

THOMAS MAXWELL

Langham

Langham is the latest addition to the Thomas Maxwell artisan leathers brand. The Langham range is a full aniline surface grain leather with a wax pull up effect which will enhance with age. At home in both classic and contemporary spaces, the hides have been tumbled and infused with oil to give them a lovely soft handle making it perfect for buttoning or more intricate work.

Langham is recommended for use in both Heavy Domestic and General Commercial applications and comes in four classically rich colours of Chestnut, Onyx, Saddle and Spruce.

All Thomas Maxwell Leathers are premium European bovine hides, tanned in Italy. Each hide is specially rolled (not folded) which protects against creasing and marking during shipment.

All Thomas Maxwell leathers are tested in accordance with stringent international standards by LASRA and AWTA.
